

12th Annual Tri-County Christian School
Holiday Market

Terms & Conditions

Transfer of Registration: The crafter/vendor that registers for the show must be the crafter/vendor that works the show. No substitutions may be made. (I.e. A manager for a certain company may not register and then have one of their team members work the event. The person registering must be the person to manage the table).

Damage & Liability: The crafter/vendor will be responsible for any damage he/she may cause and will leave their space clean and orderly upon departure. The crafter/vendor agrees to release Tri-County Christian School from any loss due to fire, theft, breakage or other cause, and all liability for injury during the show.

Table Assignments & Special Requests: Table assignments and electricity are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. We will attempt to accommodate specific requests; however, we cannot make guarantees regarding the same table assignment/location or electricity availability from previous years.

Refunds: Refunds are only available until two weeks prior to the event. Refunds can only be issued for the dollar amount of the table registration. We cannot refund convenience fees associated with the online registration.

Donation: Each crafter/vendor commits to donating 10% of all sales to Tri-County Christian School. Donations will be due at the end of the event when checking in with the event coordinator. If a vendor does not turn in a donation envelope at the event or is not able to earn commission on his/her sales until a later date, he/she agrees to make arrangements with the event coordinator to turn a donation in by an agreed upon date.

Teardown: No crafter/vendor may tear down his/her booth prior to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, December 12, 2020.

Yes, I agree to conditions stated above.
